RELIGION OR BELIEF, DISCRIMINATION AND EQUALITY Britain in Global Contexts

Paul Weller, Kingsley Purdam, Nazila Ghanea and Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor

'A very important contribution to current debates about religion in the public sphere. The book provides a wealth of important data in an accessible and contextualized form, directly supports teaching in a number of areas, and is a useful reference tool for both scholars and students, which will no doubt help feed into debates in the public sphere on these issues'

Paul Hedges, Senior Lecturer in Theology & Religious Studies, University of Winchester, UK

Religion or Belief, Discrimination and Equality is a benchmark publication on religion, discrimination and equality. It includes data and insights derived from the fieldwork, focus groups and questionnaire survey of a recent national research project in Britain. Its analysis presents a unique insight into unfair treatment on the basis of religion or belief into continuity and change in people's reported experience over a decade of equalities legislation and political and social change. Grounded in empirical and contextualized data, its findings are placed in the context of European and international human rights law.

The findings will be of special interest to both scholars and practitioners working in the specific fields of education, employment, the media, criminal justice and immigration, housing, health care, social services, and funding, as well as in the broader fields of religion or belief, the law and public policy.

Paul Weller is Professor of Inter-Religious Relations at the University of Derby and Visiting Fellow in the Oxford Centre for Christianity and Culture, Regent's Park College, University of Oxford, UK.

Kingsley Purdam is Research Fellow in the Cathie Marsh Centre for Census and Survey Research at the University of Manchester, UK.
