19. If there is any difference in the impact of the activity when considered for each of the equality groups listed in 8 – 14 above; how significant is the difference in terms of its nature and the number of people likely to be affected?	The protected characteristic groups listed in 8 -14 are not discrete communities, for example, a child or young person could fall into more than one category, from any socio-economic background. The above are key areas of consideration for commissioner and provider to ensure that the planning and delivery of the service is done in a way that avoids negative impact on individuals and/or groups with protected characteristics.
20. Could the impact constitute unlawful discrimination in relation to any of the Equality Duties?		N	The commissioned services are promoting greater equality and inclusion and shall not unlawfully discriminate within the meaning and scope of the Equality Act 2010 and any other associated policy, procedure, regulation and/or guidance as appropriate to the services provided.
21. What further information or data is required to better understand the impact? Where and how can that information be obtained?	An agreed data set on the services provided and those that access them will be required of the commissioned providers on an agreed schedule, which will include feedback from service users. The contract will be fully monitored and reported against within the identified governance procedures, with established Key Performance Indicators (KPI). This will inform and provide insight into aspects and issues that may require future focus.
22. On the basis of sections 7 – 17 above is a full impact assessment required?		N	Please explain your decision. If you are not proceeding to a full equality impact assessment make sure you have the evidence to justify this decision should you be challenged. The commissioned services are a renewal of long running service provision that has been instrumental in supporting young people to access supported accommodation.
23. If a full impact assessment is not required; what actions will you take to reduce or remove any potential differential/adverse impact, to further promote equality of opportunity through this activity or to obtain further information or data? Please complete the action plan in full, adding more rows as needed.
